

DPS Technical Sound Testing Projects

We constantly provide sound measurement services for numerous interesting projects such as

- A) The Los Angeles County SWAT department.
- B) The USDA for an environmental sound study of helicopter logging operations over the Spotted Owl habitat.
- C) Vehicle sound testing for international sound test method development. – On Highway & Off Highway.
- D) Sound testing to measure sound from in use motorcycles, ATVs, Cars and other vehicles.
- E) Perform sound testing for new vehicle EPA certification and product development.
- F) We have a recognized educational program for civilians, land managers and law enforcement.
- G) We have held several outreach hearing protection and environmental conservation educational programs for American Honda Motor Co. the Police Activities League, the consumer media, AMA, NOHVCC and racetracks throughout North America.
- H) We have an educational series for understanding vehicle noise control, testing procedures, environmental sound & measurements, measurement instrument selection and use, mufflers & spark arresters, field safety, environmental sound measurement.